Generally, small and mid-size companies have limited time, money or resources to effectively develop and implement the HR strategies required to exceed business goals and objectives. However, in the increasingly complex world of HR, they face the same employee challenges as well resourced larger organizations. Pivotal provides small and mid-size companies with affordable HR solutions that are typically only available to large corporations.

HR Solutions

We achieve more for our clients than a traditional in-house HR function does by providing a dedicated HR Director, supported by a Group Leader, specialty skills and support services. This team-based and integrated approach provides an affordable alternative to an internal hire.
